Specific activities covered by the Register

Our organization monitors EU policy developments and legislative proposals affecting business competitiveness, digital transformation, and regulatory simplification. We focus on areas relevant to SMEs and businesses operating across European markets.

Key areas of interest include:

- Competitiveness and Single Market integration, including the "One Europe, One Market" roadmap and initiatives to remove barriers to the four freedoms;
- Simplification of EU rules and reduction of administrative burdens for businesses, including the target to reduce administrative burden by at least 25% for all businesses;
- Digital economy and AI regulation, including implementation of the AI Act and related transparency obligations;
- Digital sovereignty initiatives, including semiconductor strategy, cloud infrastructure, and data policy;
- Industrial policy and sector-specific competitiveness measures affecting manufacturing, automotive, and clean energy sectors;
- Corporate sustainability, ESG reporting, and responsible business conduct;
- SME support measures, including incentives for business growth and scaling up;
- Energy security and transition policies, including diversification of energy sources;
- Crisis resilience and disaster management, including civil protection mechanisms;
- Education, skills development, and workforce training for competitive Europe.

Main EU legislative proposals or policies targeted:

We follow legislative work of the European Parliament, Council, and Commission, with particular attention to proposals under the 2026 Commission Work Programme, including omnibus simplification packages and sector-specific initiatives. Our interest covers both ongoing legislative procedures and emerging policy frameworks that may impact business environment and investment climate in the EU.

Communication activities (events, campaigns, publications, etc.) related to the EU policies above:

Our communication activities support our monitoring and engagement in EU policy areas affecting business competitiveness, digital transformation, and SME development.

We participate in public consultations, hearings, and stakeholder dialogues organized by the European Commission, Parliament, and Council, providing input on legislative proposals. We attend and organize briefings, workshops, and policy events with EU officials, MEPs, and their assistants to discuss regulatory developments and their practical implications.

We prepare and disseminate position papers, briefing notes, and analysis on key legislative files, sharing them with policymakers and stakeholders through our website and direct outreach. We also contribute to expert groups and multistakeholder platforms organized by EU institutions, sharing practical insights on digital transformation, AI regulation, and SME support.

We conduct targeted communication campaigns using newsletters and social media to inform our network about relevant policy developments, consultations, and engagement opportunities. We also organize informational sessions for our business partners and stakeholders to help them understand EU regulatory frameworks and participate effectively in policy discussions.

Our activities contribute to transparent and evidence-based policy-making by facilitating dialogue between business, civil society, and EU institutions. We strive to ensure that the voice of SMEs and entrepreneurs is heard in the legislative process.

Intergroups and unofficial groupings (European Parliament):

- Resilience, Disaster Management and Civil Protection
 - Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises (SMEs)

Participation in other EU supported forums and platforms:

Our organization participates in EU-supported forums, expert groups, and stakeholder platforms relevant to our policy interests. We engage in consultations and dialogues organized by the European Commission, including DG GROW, DG CNECT, and DG TRADE, contributing to discussions on competitiveness, digital economy, and SME development.

We take part in stakeholder meetings, public consultations, and hearings organized by the European Parliament and Commission, providing input on legislative proposals affecting business environment and regulatory simplification. We also participate in multistakeholder platforms facilitating exchange between EU institutions and business representatives.

Our engagement includes expert groups where we share practical insights on digital transformation, AI regulation, and SME support. We attend workshops, seminars, and briefing sessions, contributing to evidence-based policy discussions.

List of members and affiliate/partner organisations :

As a sole proprietorship, our organization operates as an independent entity with no traditional members. However, we maintain extensive collaborative relationships with a diverse network of business partners and non-profit organizations across Europe.

Our business collaborations include partnerships with SMEs, corporate entities, and consultancy firms, particularly those operating in the Central and Eastern European markets. We work closely with business advisory networks focused on market expansion, regulatory compliance, and strategic communications, supporting our partners in navigating complex business environments.

In the non-profit sector, we actively cooperate with charitable foundations and humanitarian organizations supporting Ukraine, with a particular focus on educational initiatives. We collaborate with associations providing educational programs, vocational training, and skills development for displaced individuals, refugees, and war-affected communities. These partnerships aim to facilitate access to education, professional activation, and social integration through various educational projects.

Our partners include organizations involved in countering disinformation and digital exclusion, as well as those promoting social inclusion and community engagement. We also maintain ties with volunteer networks and civil society platforms operating across Europe, contributing to joint initiatives and knowledge-sharing activities.
